The Lindsey Meyer Memorial Foundation

 LMMF was formed in 2002 to honor the memory of Lindsey Rose Meyer, an extraordinary young woman who lost her fiercely fought battle with Cystic Fibrosis at age 17. The Foundation seeks to keep Lindsey's memory, her passion, and her spirit alive through fun-loving activities, while generating funds to benefit the organizations that meant so much to her.

 Proceeds from the Eighth Annual Pumpkin Run will support the efforts of New Jersey State Organization of Cystic Fibrosis and the Lindsey Meyer Teen Institute, a leadership training program for high school students with an emphasis on alcohol, tobacco, and other drug prevention. In addition, Pumpkin Run proceeds will benefit LMMF's Educational Scholarship Fund. For every 50 students attending the Run, LMMF will award a $500 scholarship.
